Foundation for Rural Service

Scholarships available for college

Wabash Telephone Cooperative in conjunction with National Telecommunication Cooperative Association’s Foundation for Rural Service sponsors a college scholarship award of $2,500. There are 25 scholarships awarded across the country.

Eligibility

Applicants for the scholarship must:

- be a graduating high school senior.
- Subscribe to any service provided by the Cooperative or WIN, and be from a rural area.
- be enrolled in an accredited two-year or four-year college or university or vocational technical school.
- have at least a C grade point average.
- express an interest to work in a rural community following graduation.

The scholarship applications are available at www.frs.org, through your high school guidance office, or by Janice at Wabash Telephone 665-3311. All scholarship applications must be postmarked by March 1, 2009 and signed by our General Manager.

Food Drive

Food Drive

Share the spirit of giving by participating in the Food Drive. Donate canned goods and nonperishable food items to help make the holiday brighter for someone in need.

Each person is asked to register for a chance to win a Nintendo Wii system unit as they drop off their items at one of our three locations: WIN or ITA at Gary Hagen Dr., Flora, and WTCI at 210 South Church Street in Louisville.

WTCI/ITA/WIN 2008 float makes numerous appearances at local parades

Register to win the Special Christmas gift basket full of “fun stuff for the family”. There will be one gift basket per company given away, register by December 19, 2008 @ WTCI, ITA and WIN offices.
